ABOUT ELEMENTI

ELEMENTI is a global brand that originated in California, USA. We have a professional team of artists and artisans across the world. Years of experience in honing manufacturing technologies and design has made the brand stand out from the global competition and become the vanguard in high-end outdoor furniture design.

For the entire ELEMENTI series, the spark of the idea is ignited by the elements of nature and embraces the laid-back lifestyle of America and Scandinavian design. This broad-minded, calm, and tranquil aesthetic is what defines us.

ELEMENTI advocates the life aesthetics of naturalism, and commits itself to merging sensible outdoor living with natural landscape features and bringing it to the market. How to extend the recreation center to the outdoors, and intertwine it with the natural living space is the subject we keep thinking about and exploring.

We fuse the best and essence of modernity, accord importance to exquisite craftsmanship, and select the pick of the bunch from world-class high-quality materials.

Crafted using advanced GFRC (Glass Fiber Reinforced Concrete) technology from the United States, our luxurious furniture is designed to withstand the elements. This innovative material not only replicates the natural textures of stone and wood but also offers exceptional weather resistance, ensuring durability and longevity even in extreme conditions. In addition to GFRC, our diverse product line includes elegant marble porcelain pieces and outdoor chairs made from premium materials like teak wood and aluminum, each designed to elevate your outdoor and indoor living space with style and resilience.

ELEMENTI positions and inspects its products in accordance with international standards, guaranteeing safety and environmental protection, while striking the right balance between utility and durability.

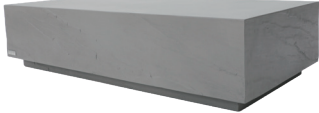

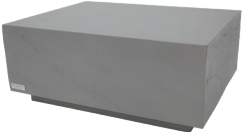

COLORADO SANDSTONE . GRAND CANYON . USA

Inspired by the majestic Grand Canyon Sandstone of the USA, the Colorado Sandstone series captures the flowing, natural textures of this iconic landscape, bringing a touch of its timeless beauty into your space.
